CARLYLE MEMBERSHIP is available to applicants who may be pursuing a course of study, undertaking research, writing a book, or simply needing the Library's resources for other reasons compatible with its aim of advancing education, learning and knowledge. The subsidy will normally cover about 30% or, in exceptional cases, 60% of the relevant annual subscription. The amount and duration of any subsidy provided is at the discretion of the Library.

APPLICATIONS

If you are concerned about affording the full subscription, please complete the form overleaf and send it to the Library at the above address. Applicants who are not already members of the Library should also complete the Library's membership application form, available on the Library's website at www.londonlibrary.co.uk or on request from the Membership Office at the Library. All information will be treated as confidential and will be used only for the purpose of considering the application. For any further information or advice, please contact the Library's Membership Office at membership@londonlibrary.co.uk or on 020 7766 4720.

Assistance provided under the Carlyle Membership scheme should be acknowledged in any resultant publication, and a copy of that publication presented to the Library on completion. The Library reserves the right to request evidence of the information provided by the applicant, and to make, vary and withdraw assistance at its discretion and without giving its reasons.
