

The London Library Institutional Membership Application

Membership for Small Organisations

Organisations with fewer than 10 staff or members may apply for membership in the name of a designated representative (who may be changed at any time) who may use the Library and has responsibility for all books.

A representative may appoint one nominee (also transferable) who may make use of the Library in the representative's name.

The representative or nominee may permit Library books and resources to be used by the members or employees of the organisation represented, as specified on the application form, on the premises of the organisation.

Only the representative and nominee may use the membership number and PIN to access the Electronic Library

Fees

The annual fee for this type of institutional membership is £666.

Loan Entitlement

Members based in London are allowed to borrow 15 volumes at a time, and those outside London, 20. The fee for every further 5 volumes (up to a total maximum of 40) is £95 a year.

Application

This form should be completed by the proposed representative and sent to the Membership Office with a cheque (payable to The London Library) for the initial subscription fee. Alternatively, you may pay by debit/credit card or bank transfer, or an invoice can be requested at the time of application. Subsequent subscriptions can be collected by direct debit. Your attention is drawn to the undertaking that the representative is required to give.
